

GEO-HEAT CENTER QUARTERLY BULLETIN

ISSN 0276-1084

A Quarterly Progress and Development Report on the Direct Utilization of Geothermal Resources

CONTENTS	Page	PUBLISHED BY
Combined Geothermal Heat and Power Plants	1	GEO-HEAT CENTER Oregon Institute of Technology 3201 Campus Drive Klamath Falls, OR 97601 Phone: 541-885-1750 Email: geoheat@oit.edu
Integrating Small Power Plant Into Direct-Use Projects Dr. R. Gordon Bloomquist.	2
Husavik Energy - Multiple Use of Geothermal Energy Hreinn Hjartarson and Runolfur Maack	7	All articles for the Bulletin are solicited. If you wish to contribute a paper, please contact the editor at the above address.
Sudurnes Regional Heating Corporation, Svartsengi, Iceland Geir Thorolfsson	14	EDITOR John W. Lund Typesetting/Layout - Donna Gibson Graphics - Tonya "Toni" Boyd
Hitaveita Reykjavikur and the Nesjavellir Geothermal Co-Generation Power Plant Edited by John W. Lund	19	WEBSITE http://geoheat.oit.edu
Hot Artesian Water Powers an Outback Town in Australia Prame N. Chopa.	25	FUNDING The bulletin is provided compliments of the Geo-Heat Center. This material was prepared with the support of the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE Grant No. DE-FG03-01SF22362). However, any opinions, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of USDOE.
Bad Blumau (Styria, Austria) - The Success Story of Combined Use of Geothermal Energy Johann Goldbrunner	27	SUBSCRIPTIONS The bulletin is mailed free of charge. Please send your name and address to the Geo-Heat Center for addition to the mailing list. If you wish to change your bulletin subscription, please complete the form below and return it to the Center.
Combined Heat and Power Plant, Neustadt-Glewe, Germany Compiled by John W. Lund	31	Name _____ Address _____ _____ Zip _____
Cover: Modified schematic of the Neustadt-Glewe, Germany, combined heat and power plant (courtesy of Geotermische Vereinigung).

Country _____